

On the Prom

Goodbye from Judith and John Rastl

Judith and John Rastl

As some of you learned at the Lawn Party, John and I are getting ready to say goodbye to Portland and hello to Hilton Head, South Carolina. Our condo here is listed but not yet sold, so we're not exactly sure when we'll be leaving. That made the great send-off by our neighbors at the 7th Annual Lawn Party a total surprise.

We will always cherish memories from that evening. During John's years as an Air Force pilot we've had many going away parties. This party ranks up there with some of the best. Here are some photos from the party.

Bob McCue and Megan Ladd

Judy and Fred Hill

Nick Ciciretti, Louise Backer and Jenny McBrady

Dick and Carol Joyal

Andrea Turley and Lesa von Munkwitz-Smith

There are many things John and I will miss when we leave Portland. The 4th of July celebration on the Eastern Promenade. The Old Port Festival. Taking the ferry to Peaks Island. Walking to neighborhood restaurants and so much more. Most of all, though, we will miss our friends.

In the years I've been writing On the Prom I have included Holiday Party and Lawn Party photos as well as some from other gatherings. If you don't see your face on the next page, it's because I don't have file photos of all the people we will miss.

The collage on the following page tells a story better than words. Pictures of our friends and memories at Promenade Towers.
